Bristol House Beverly Swerling

The publisher's blurb for Beverly Swerling's new novel, Bristol House talked about the blending of historical fiction with a supernatural thriller in a "dual period narrative". For that reason alone, I would have read it. Then it mentioned that the historical part was set in Tudor England, a period of history that I am particularly fond of.

Bristol House by Beverly Swerling - Goodreads

Ms Swerling never disappoints and Bristol House is her latest page turner. An admitted fan and admirer of her work I find myself at once drawn in to the immediate plot line and then being rewarded beyond expectations as the characters begin to take root in the story.
