Picture writing prompts consist of an image — and sometimes a short sentence — to prompt a student to begin writing. The goal is to have the student look at the picture and write a story, poem, or essay inspired in them by the image. It's amazing to see all of the different ideas that bloom in children's minds from just one image.

You buy a journal, a pen or pencil, and you begin writing. You don't need to be a writer and you don't need to know what you're going to write.

Nor do you need to keep some sort of strict schedule with it. This is where journal prompts do come in handy, not only for the new journal writer but also for the seasoned one.
