Bear and Mole make a kite for kite day. Once aloft the kite soars, and then a sudden Spring storm takes the kite higher, and the string breaks. Bear and Mole chase their kite until it lands broken in a tree, but they discover that their broken kite is being put to good use.

Kite Day: A Bear and Mole Story by Will Hillenbrand

On a windy spring day, Bear sniffs the air. Could it be. . . Kite day? Rushing home he tells Mole, and the two fast friends get to work building a kite of their own. They study, and collect, and measure, and construct—and soon, their kite is flying high above the meadow. But when a storm rumbles in—SNAP!—the kite string breaks, and all their hard work soars away.
